SUMMARY

María Gutiérrez Urtiaga is Associate Professor of Finance (with tenure) at Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Department of Business Administration. She received a Ph.D. in Economics from the Universidad Complutense in 2000 and a Master in Economics and Finance from CEMFI in 1997. She teaches corporate governance, corporate finance and financial management to undergraduate, master and PhD students with excellent student evaluations (5/5 for awarded by graduate students during academic year 2022/23). Her research interests include corporate governance, corporate finance, and law and finance. She is also research associate of the European Corporate Governance Institute (ECGI). Her research examines corporate governance institutions such as boards of directors and fiduciary duties and corporate governance problems such as minority expropriation. She has published in prestigious international journals such as the Rand Journal of Economics, Industrial and Corporate Change, Journal of Law, Finance and Accounting, Corporate Governance: An International Review and the Journal of Corporate Legal Studies. María has received several grants and awards for her research work, which is regularly presented at leading conferences including the American Law and Economics Association, the European Economic Association and the European Finance Association. From 2012 until 2016 she served as a member of the Consulting Committee of the CNMV (Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores Español). From 2019 until 2021 she served as president of AEFIN (Asociación Española de Finanzas). Since 2018 she also works as a consultant for the CNMV.
